

April 2024
COVER LETTER

DEAR STATION MANAGER,

For those who have not put their faith in Christ, the book of Revelation depicts a hopeless future filled with God's wrath and judgement on humanity. But for believers, the final book of the Bible reveals the exact opposite...a glorious hope-filled future with God for all of eternity!

This April on Insight for Living, Pastor Chuck Swindoll continues teaching through Revelation and will wrap up Act 1 to the series and then press on into Act 2. Listeners will walk away with a strong understanding of John's vision and the world's future chaos from God's perspective.

As a reminder, Insight for Living also offers a weekly children's program called Paws & Tales. And starting this month, the program will feature five brand-new episodes that will have the kids in your audience engaging with God's Word in a fresh and fun way! If it's not already in your weekly rotation, we invite you to add Paws & Tales to your lineup today.

If there is any way our team can serve you this month on behalf of Insight for Living Ministries, please do not hesitate to reach out.

We wish you and your audience a Happy Easter!

Blessings,

Your Media Services Team

The Church Awakening

The twenty-first-century church is eroding.

Seeking greater cultural relevancy, the church is drifting away from its dependence on the Bible. In far too many churches, worship is wispy, preaching is puny, and eternal impact is small.

Chuck Swindoll knows that the church doesn't need another book on how to reach the culture. Believers in Jesus need a practical and powerful book that flips the switch and turns on the light of truth—revealing how the church can fulfill its original purpose as determined by its originator, Jesus.

What does the church need? An awakening! Chuck Swindoll provides that wake-up call in The Church Awakening: An Urgent Call for Renewal.
